

Getting to the embarkation ports & parking areas

Montréal

Go to the cruise ship terminal at Montreal's Old Port to check in and receive information on boarding procedures for your cruise. It is important to arrive at the site 2 hours prior to departure.

Getting to the cruise terminal

The terminal is located at the intersection of Rue de la Commune Ouest and rue de la Callière.

GPS address: 200 Rue de la Commune Ouest, Montréal, Quebec H2Y 4B2

Parking is available for the duration of your cruise, for the price of $ 25* per day, taxes included. A 15% discount applies if you leave the car on site for a week. The Port of Montréal accepts payments by Visa, Mastercard or cash. Reservations are not required.

 Rates are subject to change depending on the pricing of the Port of Montréal*

Passengers bringing their vehicle aboard the ship will receive instructions on the day of departure at the cruise terminal.

The closest metro station is Square-Victoria. You will then need to take a taxi from the metro station to the cruise terminal.

The closest train station is Central Station. You will then need to take a taxi from the station to the cruise terminal.

Québec City

Go to Pier 21 at the Québec City Port to check in and receive information on boarding procedures for your cruise. It is important to arrive at the site 2 hours prior to departure.

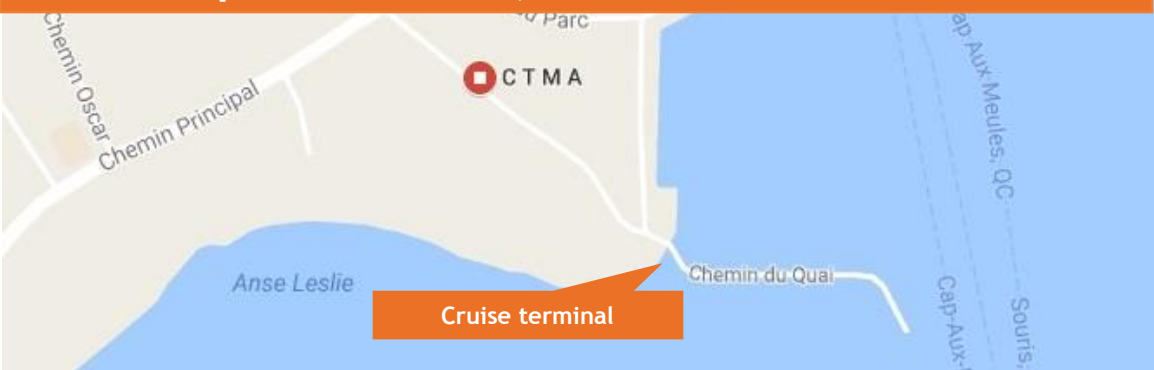

The entrance to Pier 21 is located at the intersection of Rue Dalhousie and Rue Quai Saint-André.

GPS address: 84 Rue Dalhousie, Québec City, Québec G1K 8M5
(Address of the restaurant Café du Monde, directly opposite Pier 21)

A city parking lot is available on site. For pricing, you can contact Indigo at 418 628-6852; you can also find information on their website at www.parkindigo.ca.

Cap-aux-Meules, Îles de la Madeleine

Go to the cruise terminal at the Cap-aux-Meules port to check in and receive information on boarding procedures for your cruise. It is important to arrive at the site 2 hours prior to departure.

The entrance to the terminal is located at the intersection of Chemin Principal and Chemin du Quai.

GPS address: 240 Chemin du Quai, Cap-aux-Meules, Québec G4T 1J4

Free parking is available near the ship. Reservations are not required.